Colt Starting Clinic with Sam Wagler

For two weeks only, combine your dream ranch vacation with this hands-on learning opportunity! Sam Wagler is a Josh Lyons Certified and Accredited trainer, who consistently produces willing, supple, and reliable equine partners. Sam not only knows what it takes to make a one-handed reining pattern, he is familiar with long days of riding fence and roping calves. During each of these one week clinics, he will personally walk you through building a solid foundation on a young horse, and advancing to full body control.
